REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

---

In compliance with law, the following report of the Summer schools is respectfully presented to the citizens of Gilford.

School sessions were as follows :

District No. 2,	taught by	Lizzie M. Britton.
" " 5,	" "	Alice J. Gilman.
" " 6,	" "	N. E. Wilkinson.
" " 7,	" "	Nellie S. Leavitt.
" " 9,	" "	Amanda Weeks.
" " 12,	" "	Sadie R. Hibbard.

Distr. No. 13,	"	"	Sarah E. Sturtevant.
"	"	"	Carrie M. Brawn.
"	"	"	Emma J. Sanders.

Each school was visited twice, while some received a third and fourth visitation. The result of careful observation is that all were good schools. The Prudential Committees exercised great care, each teacher faithfully discharged their duties, and the parents have reason to feel their money was profitably expended.

While the foregoing is a true report, your committee desires to throw out a few hints.

I. TO TEACHERS.

Have your scholars speak and read in a good full tone.

Assign the lessons and have them short and perfect.

Teach the rudiments faithfully.

Teach your scholars how to study.

Do not correct in reading until the child has finished the paragraph.

Be patient.

Be kind.

II. TO PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEES.

Exercise great care in the selection of your teachers.

The Superintendent can judge of the simple literary qualification, but cannot in a brief examination learn of the disposition, character and executive ability.

Employ teachers who can govern as well as instruct.

Pay good wages.

Visit the school. Not one in ten of you ever enter when the school is in session.

III. TO PARENTS.

Send your children regularly.

Visit the school often.

Get your children a plenty of good new books.

Some of you wish to have your children in books too far advanced for them.

When there is trouble, the most of it commences with the parents.

Sustain the teacher.

H. S. KIMBALL.

---

Having been appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the removal of Rev. H. S. Kimball from town, I submit the following report :

DISTRICT No. 1. (Intervale.) Prudential Committee, Henry Bean. At my first visit this school was in charge of Miss Eliza A. Doe, and no school in town gave a better impression. Miss Doe has all the qualifications of a good teacher, and scholars, parents and committee deeply regretted the necessity that compelled her to leave before the completion of the term. Miss M. S. Rowe, who completed the term, has more than ordinary energy ; and with more experience will make, I doubt not, one of our best teachers. Few harder places can be selected for a young teacher than that occupied by Miss Rowe.

DISTRICT No. 2. (Carr's.) Prudential Committee, Simon C. Carr. Teacher, Lizzie A. Britton. Miss Britton labored hard and no doubt accomplished all that could reasonably be expected from a term of less than five weeks.

DISTRICT No. 3. (Mooney's.) Committee, Richard Frohock. Teacher, Miss E. D. Sanborn. The thoroughness exhibited at close of term proved that the teacher had been untiring in her efforts, and that her energy had been skillfully applied and well appreciated by the pupils. No district in town had a poorer school house or better teacher.

DISTRICT No. 5. (Thyng's.) Prudential Committee, Noah L. Davis. Teacher, Miss Alice J. Gilman. This school compared well with others in town. The patient labor of the teacher was abundantly manifest in the improvement in all the classes.

DISTRICT No. 6. (Pond.) Prudential Committee, Leonard Wilkinson. Teacher, Miss N. E. Wilkinson. Both teacher and scholars labored to make this term pleasant and profitable. The examination at close exhibited a thoroughness found in but few schools in town.

DISTRICT No. 7. (White Oaks.) Prudential Committee, Palmer W. Merrill. Teacher, Miss Carrie E. Drake. This school was quite small. Those that attended made fair progress. Good order was maintained. Miss Drake is a young teacher, but with more experience will no doubt make one of the best.

DISTRICT No. 8. (Gilford Village.) Simon Rowe, Committee. Teacher, Cyrus A. Sanborn. This school was a success in every respect. Perfect order, promptness and thoroughness in recitation, proved Mr. Sanborn to be a model teacher.

DISTRICT No. 9. (Under the Mountain.) Prudential Committee, G. W. Morrill. Miss Ida M. Hatch taught this school with her usual good success. Good order and fair improvement.

DISTRICT No. 10. (Liberty Hill.) Prudential Committee, J. W. George. Teacher, C. A. George. Owning to a misunderstanding as to time of closing, I did not visit this school but once. I can only say it appeared well at that time, and I have no doubt it was a profitable term.

DISTRICT No 11. (Back of the Mountain.) Prudential Committee, Jacob Frohock. Teacher, Miss Sarah A. Ball. The general appearance of this school was excellent. Miss Ball is an experienced teacher, has the faculty of instilling into her scholars a commendable ambition which always results in improvement.

DISTRICT No. 12. (Morrill's.) Prudential Committee, U. R. Collins. Teacher, Miss Sadie R. Hibbard. The School House, by far the best in town, proves that the parents take an unusual interest in the education of their children. For a young teacher Miss Hibbard did extremely well.

DISTRICT No. 13. (Lake Village.) Prudential Committee, George T. Sturtevant. The Primary Department was taught by Mrs. Emma J. Sanders with her usual good success, notwithstanding the unsuitableness of the School Room. It is hoped that the district will soon provide suitable accommodations for the small scholars. Mrs. Sanders also taught the third term of the Intermediate Department which at the close proved that she had not labored in vain. The class in written arithmetic was particularly noticed as having made a very marked improvement.

The second term of the Intermediate Department was taught by Mrs. Carrie B. Nute. Good order and commendable improvement. Mrs. Nute ranks with our best teachers.

The second and third terms of our Grammar Department taught by Mrs. Laura A. Franklin. Mrs. Franklin, although an excellent teacher and laboring with untiring zeal, did not have her usual success the first term. Some trouble was experienced in the management of the larger boys and it became necessary to expel one from the school. The second term was a decided improvement. The scholars came to appreciate the kindness and labor of the teacher, and at the close the expectations of Committee were more than realized in the improvement manifest.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. ODELL, S. S. Committee.
